Written or "in writing" – shall be construed to include any representation of words, letters, or figures, whether by printing or otherwise.

The word "year" – shall be construed to mean a calendar year.

SECTION 2. Rules of Construction

In the construction of this Ordinance and of all ordinances, the following rules of construction shall be observed, unless inconsistent with the manifest intent of the council or the context of the ordinance clearly requires otherwise:

CITY OF LYNN

In City Council

- a. Computation of time. The time within which an act is to be done shall be computed by excluding the first and including the last calendar day, and if the last day is a Sunday or a legal holiday, that day shall not be counted in the computation.
- b. Conflicting provisions. If any provisions of this Ordinance conflict with one another, accepted rules of statutory construction shall be applied to resolve the conflict.
- c. Definitions. Unless expressly otherwise provided, definitions given within a chapter, article, or section shall apply only to words or phrases used in that chapter, article, or section.
- d. Delegation of authority. Whenever a provision of these ordinances appears requiring the head of a department or some other officer of the city to do some act or perform some duty, or granting some right to such official, it shall be construed to authorize such department head or officer to designate, delegate, and authorize subordinates to do the required act or perform the required duty, or it shall grant to them such right, unless the terms of the provisions designate otherwise.
- e. Gender. A word importing only the male gender shall extend and be construed as to apply to the female gender and to firms, partnerships, and corporations, as well as to males. A word importing the female gender only shall extend and be construed as to apply to the male gender and to firms, partnerships, and corporations; as well as to females,
- f. Joint authority. Words purporting to grant joint authority to three (3) or more officers or other persons shall be construed as giving such authority to a majority of such officers or persons.
- g. Number. A word importing the singular number only may extend and be applied to several persons or things as well as to one person or thing.
- h. Tense. Words used in the past or present tense shall include the future, as well as the past and present, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.
- i. Time. Words stating a time or hour of a day shall mean the official time of the city.
- j. All chapters and ordinances shall, unless expressly otherwise provided, be interpreted according to the terms and conditions provided in this chapter. (Amended 3-10-97).

SECTION 3. Severability

It is hereby declared that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and t phrases of this Ordinance are severable; and if any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, or section of this Ordinance shall be declared unconstitutional, invalid, or inoperative by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs, and sections of these ordinances.

SECTION 4. Catch–Lines of Sections

The catch-lines of the several sections of these ordinances printed in boldface type are intended as mere catchwords to indicate the contents of the sections, and shall not be deemed to be taken to be titles of such sections nor any part thereof.

SECTION 5. Recodification and Review

Pursuant to section 9-9 of the Charter of the City of Lynn for the year following the initial review of the city charter, under section 9-8 of the Charter, and at five year intervals thereafter, the city council shall cause to be prepared a proposal recodification of all city ordinances, and any revisions thereto deemed appropriate or necessary. The city council shall adopt the proposed revision or recodification with or without amendment prior to the expiration of the calendar year in which such recodification and revisions are submitted to the council. Such revisions or recodification shall be prepared under the supervision of the city solicitor, or if the city council so directs, by special council retained for such purposes.

SECTION 6. General Penalty Criminal and Non – Criminal Disposition

- a. Any person who violates a provision of these ordinances or of any ordinance of the city, whether included in these ordinances or any hereafter enacted, whereby any act or thing is enjoined, or prohibited or required, shall unless other provision is expressly made, be liable for a penalty as set forth in subsection (c) herein for each offense; provided, however, that whenever a higher penalty is permitted under the General Laws of Massachusetts, such higher penalty shall be the maximum penalty for each offense; and provided- further, that this section shall not preclude the city from proceedings to restrain the violation of any provision of these ordinances by injunction where such proceeding is more apt. In all instances, except as otherwise provided, each day a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.
- b. Whoever violates any provision of these ordinances, the violation of which is subject to a specific penalty, may also be penalized by a non-criminal disposition as provided in the General Laws, chapter 40, 21D. The non-criminal method of disposition may also be used for violations of any rule or regulation of any municipal officer, board or department, which is subject to a specific penalty.

In the absence of a specific schedule of penalties, as provided for in subsection (c), all ordinances whether included in these Ordinances or any hereafter enacted, may be enforced by police officers through non-criminal disposition as deemed appropriate according to the following schedule: General Schedule of Non-criminal Fines

First Offense: $50.00

Second Offense: $150.00

Third Offense: $300.00

- c. Notwithstanding the provisions of the section (a) or (b) of this section 1-7, it is the intention of this subsection that the following ordinances, and regulations are to be included within the scope of the non-criminal disposition for violation of ordinances according to Chapter 40, section 21D of the General Laws. The specific penalties, as listed herein, shall apply in such cases. The following municipal personnel shall be enforcing persons for the purposes of this subsection. Enforcing persons may, in their sole discretion, issue a written warning, in lieu of a fine, for first time violations.
