Ordered that _____ (2) _____

SECTION 5. Christmas tree and similar sales.

A. No person, whether principal or agent, who engages in temporary or transient business, shall offer for sale, expose for sale or sell any article in any open area, alley or vacant lot, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such items as wreaths, flowers, Christmas trees or Christmas decorations, unless such person has first obtained a license therefor from the City Clerk as provided in Section 2.

B. This section shall not apply to any person who is assessed, or is liable to assessment for personal property taxes, as of January 1st in the year in which the sales referred to above are to be made.

C. Religious, fraternal and charitable organizations, as determined by the City Council, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section in the outside sale of goods, wares or merchandise, conducted on premises owned or rented by said organization.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, any person declared to be a "blind person," as described in Section 133 of Chapter 6 of the Massachusetts General Laws, who has registered with the Massachusetts Commission For The Blind, as provided for by Section 135, of Chapter 6 of the Massachusetts General Laws, shall be exempted from the license fee set out in this Ordinance.

SECTION 6. Door-to-door solicitation permit.

A. No person shall solicit from door to door in the city for any purpose without first having properly registered and secured a permit from the police chief. The permit issued by the police chief shall be conspicuously worn on the solicitor's outer wearing apparel in a manner which will allow residents to easily identify the door-to-door solicitor as an officially registered door-to-door solicitor licensed by the city.

B. To defray the costs of registration and issuance of permits for door-to-door solicitors, the police chief is authorized to charge and collect on behalf and for the city.

SECTION 7. Standing No hawker or peddler shall, on a street of the city and while offering or exposing goods, wares or other merchandise for sale, remain in one place, or within two hundred feet thereof, for longer than five minutes, unless actually engaged in making a sale.

SECTION 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 9. This ordinance shall take effect thirty-one (31) days after its final adoption as advertised.
